

The Sorenson VRS Provider did not allow me to choose available types of video equipments or available video providers. Also, their VRS relay services are very difficult to reach because an interpreter was not promptly available every time I made a call.

DLink Provider has not installed a DLINK at my place for many past months after I applied for it even several times.